Permits

If you are planning a beach wedding in Hawaii please be advised that a permit is required in most cases. We will acquire a permit for your ceremony for a fee of $25 for up to 20 attendees, $35 if over 20 attendees, up to a maximum count of 30 for Hawaii state beaches.

Ceremonies with more than 20 attendees, including vendors, will require a professional coordinator to be on site for up to 1 hour. If you do not have one we will provide a coordinator for $75 for 1 hour. For over 30 attendees and up to a maximum of 40 total, a city and county beach park permit, limited to certain locations, will be required and which we will assist you in obtaining for a fee of $25.00. This permit will also be required for ceremonies that include chairs and/or arches. Please contact us for events which will have more than more than 40 attendees

A separate permit may also be required at certain locations for photography. If necessary, the permit will automatically be provided at an additional cost of $25.00.

Peak Hour and Holiday surcharges

Peak hour surcharges of $25 per vendor will apply to events scheduled after 3:00 PM and on weekends and $50 per vendor on Holidays.

Travel surcharges

Travel surcharges for each vendor and/or supplier will apply to locations outside of the metropolitan Honolulu area of Oahu which is from Kawaikui beach and Kahala and Waialae beach to Waikiki and Magic Island.

Travel surcharges per vendor are as follows: Waimanalo + $30, Kuuloa to Hauula, Haleiwa and Ewa to Ko'Olina + $50.00. Turtle Bay (including Kahuku and Laie) and Waianae coast $75.

Initial deposit and payment options

We will schedule your ceremony with a minimum initial deposit payment as low as $100.00 with the remaining balance due at your ceremony, payable either in cash or by certified check made payable to Jade H. Glover.

With our "Pay As You Go" payment option, for a one-time transaction fee of just 2.9% of the total cost of services for your Hawaii wedding or vow renewal you can make an initial deposit equal to 20% of your total cost of services then 4 equal installments payable up to 30 days before your ceremony.
